

PT Toba Pulp Lestari's Identification of Protected Species

PT Toba Pulp Lestari (TPL) has a list of the international and national referenced system with identified species of conservation concern and species classification. This species monitoring activity has been carried out since 2015 until now within the scope of all TPL operational locations. The system of classification is based on the Indonesian National Regulations, International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN), and Appendices Cites.

Reference/ Source :

Threatened And Protected Species Table of PT TPL